

INVITATION TO WEBINAR

The appointment of the new leader to the Norwegian Sovereign Oil Fund, Nicolai Tangen / NBIM;

What happened, why such a public debate and what now?

The British-Norwegian Chamber of Commerce together with DLA Piper have brought together experts from the The Financial Times and Dagens Næringsliv to give a «behind the scenes» look at the controversial employment of Nicolai Tangen, as chief of the world's largest sovereign fund.

DATE

Wednesday 16th September

TIME

18:00 - 19:30 (GMT +1)

SPEAKERS

Moderator: HÅKON BORUD

- Partner and Sr. Communications Advisor at First House, Vice Chairman Of The Board at BNCC, former Managing News Editor of Aftenposten.

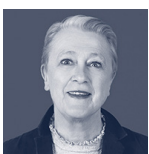

RICHARD MILNE - Nordic and Baltic Correspondent for The Financial Times.

How does the turbulence surrounding Nicolai Tangen look from a British perspective?

FRITHJOF JACOBSEN - Political Editor of Dagens Næringsliv, shares the Norwegian perspective of this highly controversial employment process.

BERIT REISS-ANDERSEN - Partner and Head of Litigation at DLA Piper Norway, will sum up the debate and explain the intricacies, ethics and importance of Norway's Oil Fund for the Norwegian economy.

Welcome!

Kind regards,

British-Norwegian Chamber of Commerce (BNCC) and DLA Piper Norway

REGISTER YOUR ATTENDANCE HERE

British Norwegian Chamber of Commerce